If you are not enrolled in a degree or certificate program at PSR or another Graduate Theological Union (GTU) member school and would like to take courses for academic credit, you may apply for Special Student Status. Special students are not eligible for financial aid or for PSR housing. Application instructions and requirements are subject to change.

Special student status is available for people who:

1. Need to take polity/history/theology classes in order to satisfy denominational requirements.
2. Are uncertain about vocational goals and which degree program best suits their needs, yet desire to take courses for credit.
3. Are currently enrolled at another non-GTU seminary and wish to take courses for credit at PSR or another GTU member school.
4. Wish to take graduate theological courses for personal development and enrichment.

All course limitations and prerequisites apply. The Assistant Dean for Academic Programs will determine eligibility and appropriateness for each course. When courses are limited, priority will be given to students enrolled in a degree or certificate program. PSR reserves the right to deny admission to any applicant at any time.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Complete applications must be submitted at least two weeks prior to the first day of class.

Along with this application form, send the following to the PSR Admissions Office:

- A non-refundable $50 processing fee payable to Pacific School of Religion.
- A typed statement explaining why you are applying to PSR and why you wish to take the indicated course(s) for credit.
- A sealed official transcript from your undergraduate institution. (A bachelor's degree is required with a minimum GPA of 3.0 from an accredited institution.) This requirement is waived for individuals currently enrolled in an accredited, graduate program of study.

PSR alumni/ae who wish to take courses for credit at a reduced rate should not use this form. Instead, complete the “Application to Enroll at Special Rates or Audit” available at www.psr.edu/application-audit-or-special-rate.
