

Pacific School of Religion invites all who seek to deepen their faith, leadership, and ministry to join this learning community.

Explore a range of theological, spiritual, and practical ministry topics from a progressive, non-denominational Christian perspective.

The Certificate of Theological Education for Leadership is an online course series and certificate program.

"I had always done ministry, but without the skills or the knowledge. Enrolling in Pacific School of Religion Theological Education for Leadership's program opened a new world for me. I enjoyed being a part of community, the lectures, the camaraderie and challenges of learning things that I was sure that I already knew."
