

Master of Divinity Stackable Assessment Rubric 2024

Program and Mission Goals

1. Demonstrate critical engagement with texts and traditions, cultures, and practices involved in the lived experience of religion and spirituality - Vision (intellectual): Analyze
2. Employ the contextual and queer study of knowledge, social systems, and/or digital spaces - Vision (intellectual): Discern
3. Express an engaged, informed spirituality and a respectful, compassionate way of being and doing - Resilience (emotional): Engage
4. Convey the self and interpersonal awareness necessary for sustainable social change - Resilience (emotional): Sustain
5. Generate knowledge that fosters effective collaboration across difference - Skill (material): Innovate
6. Apply theological, ethical, spiritually informed, and contextual approaches to leadership and/or pastoral practices - Skill (material): Implement

	Program Goals	Mission Goals
1	Demonstrate critical engagement with texts and traditions, cultures, and practices involved in the lived experience of religion and spirituality	Vision (intellectual): Analyze
2	Employ the contextual and queer study of knowledge, social systems, and/or digital spaces	Vision (intellectual): Discern
3	Express an engaged, informed spirituality and a respectful, compassionate way of being and doing	Resilience (emotional): Engage
4	Convey the self and interpersonal awareness necessary for sustainable social change	Resilience (emotional): Sustain
5	Generate knowledge that fosters effective collaboration across difference	Skill (material): Innovate
6	Apply theological, ethical, spiritually informed, and contextual approaches to leadership and/or pastoral practices	Skill (material): Implement

